

Thank you – to many people

153 people attended Forum

Thank you – to many people

SEMI PV Group - free use of Esplanade Hall and registration

PVTEC – lunches, coffee breaks, AV, other things

NREL – part of AV, website support

AIST, JEMA, JET, JRC, SEMI and NREL – hosting and organizing

METI and DOE – ongoing financial support

International PV Module Quality Assurance Forum

The Organizing Committee gratefully thanks the Sponsors of the Forum

July 16, 20

Thank you – to many people

Speakers – excellent presentations

Break out session leaders

Session chairs

Registration & microphone assistance

Thank you – to many people

Individual thanks to James Amano and Agnes Cobar for assistance with the local arrangements

And to Tony Sample for organizing the sponsors

Thank you – to many people

Thanks to each of you for joining the Forum

Special thanks to those who are volunteering to participate in the QA Task Groups!

When we might see you next...

- Statement from the Forum
- Goals: to create a single set of QA standards and guidelines.
  - A QA rating system
  - A manufacturing QA guideline
- Milestones (interim):
  - QA standards and guidelines for Si PV Modules
    - Task Group proposal (s) to IEC TC82 WG2 Spring 2012
    - Task Group proposal (s) to IEC TC82 WG2 Fall, 2012
    - Testing under the international QA standard begins Spring 2012.
- Meetings:
  - #1 International QA Forum @ San Francisco, USA Jul.15-16, 2011
  - Introductory EU meeting @ Hamburg, Germany Sep.8, 2011
  - APEC meeting @ San Francisco, USA Sep. 15-16, 2011
  - APEC meeting @ Taipei, Taiwan Oct. 12-13, 2011
  - #2 International QA Forum @ Tokyo, Japan Dec. 5-6, 2011
  - #3 International QA Forum @ Europe Spring, 2012